CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

Before becoming a Certified Financial Planner®, Betty-Anne Howard spent 17 years in the social and emotional health services field as a counsellor and teacher. This experience, in addition to her Master's Degree in Social Work and Honours Degree in Psychology, has informed her more holistic approach to Financial Planning.

Betty-Anne has developed and delivered courses at both Queen's University and St. Lawrence College. She's also been honoured with numerous awards for her public speaking, and has facilitated a variety of inspirational talks to organizations such as the Ottawa Estate Planning Council, Friends of the Earth Canada, Action Canada and the Canadian Association of Gift Planners.

With her specialization in strategic philanthropic planning and charitable giving she has been able to direct millions of dollars to the charitable sector while dramatically reducing taxes for those individuals she has assisted.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING

"Betty-Anne is a rare combination of financial expertise and magical stage presence. Her views are unique and refreshing, especially in the world of numbers."

Landy Jac, Global Director, Worldwide Business Intelligence

"Betty-Anne is a master at her craft. She spoke at one of my events about financial resilience during crisis, and she knocked it out of the park. Betty-Anne has become one of my go-to financial speakers ever since."

Shahab Anari, MD
